SENIOR STATISTICS

CLASS HISTORY

August 1958, sixty-one students entered high school for their first year as freshmen. After a few days we were soon accustomed to our new surroundings.

Our sponsors were Miss Mary Niblock and Mr. Kenneth Swain. At the first class meeting we elected Gary Kee, president; Larry Taylor, vice-president; and Judy Benton, secretary and treasurer. Judy Smith and Judy Benton were elected cheerleaders.

The next year we were sophomores. We began this year with Mrs. Augusta Stough and Mr. Ted Bechtler as our sponsors. We chose as our officers: Gary Kee, president; Benny Allen, vice-president; Lynda Frye, treasurer; Poni Johnson, secretary, and Annie Poston, reporter. This year Poni Johnson was chosen queen and she rode in the Kannapolis and Concord parades.

Our next year was filled with much more excitement because now we were juniors. Mrs. Janet Goldiere and Mrs. Lucille Daniel were our sponsors. To lead our class this year we elected Jimmy Baker, President; Jerry Mesimer, vice-president; Carla Spradley, secretary; Annie Poston, treasurer; and Mary Johnson, reporter.

We were very proud when 22 members of our class were tapped into the Beta Club. Those tapped were: Benny Allen, Jimmy Baker, Jerry Mesimer, Mike Stegall, Barbara Baucom, Annie Poston, Hilda Smith, Judy Benton, Bonnie Poplin, Carla Spradley, Shirley Eudy, Lundy Goodman, Mary Johnson, Betty Lyerly, Ruth Costner, Cynthia Penninger, Lois Fortner, Poni Johnson, Carol Nance, Nancy Tallent, Brenda Freeze and Linda Taylor.

How excited we were when we chose "Cheaper by the Dozen" as our Junior play, with Mrs. Janet Goldiere directing. The cast included: Mike Stegall, Linda Taylor, Annie Poston, Jimmy Baker, Carla Spradley, Judy Benton, Jerry Mesimer, Dwayne Hensley, Gary Kee, Betty Lyerly, Judy Smith, Cynthia Penninger, Benny Allen, Larry Taylor, Gerene Jordon and Guy Crowe.

As the graduation exercises were being planned, the marshals were chosen from our class. Annie Poston was chief, with Jimmy Baker, Carla Spradley, Judy Benton, Cynthia Penninger, Brenda Freeze and Shirley Eudy assisting.

As the end of the year drew near, we entertained the seniors with a lovely banquet. The theme was "Stork Club," and we all worked very hard to make it a success.

At last the year 1962 came; we were Seniors. For this our final year Mrs. Mary Cooke and Mr. Carl Cathey were our sponsors. For our officers we chose Benny Allen, president; Gary Kee, vice-president; Carla Spradley, secretary; Poni Johnson, treasurer, and Mary Johnson, reporter.

To get the year started off right, work was begun on the newspaper and the annual. Several members of the annual staff had been chosen at the close of our junior year. These included Annie Poston, editor; and Jimmy Baker, co-editor; Cynthia Penninger, business manager; and Poni Johnson, co-business manager.

During one of our first class meetings, we elected the remainder of the annual staff. They were Shirley Eudy and Jerry Mesimer, circulation managers, the second-year typing class, typists and Mary Johnson, artist. The newspaper staff elected consisted of Carla Spradley, editor; Jerry Mesimer, co-editor; Brenda Freeze, Feature editor; Becky Mesimer, circulation manager and Mary Johnson, artist and Secretarial Practice class, typists. The sponsor for the annual was Mrs. Mary Cooke. Mrs. Augusta Stough and Mr. Max Lippard sponsored the newspaper.

This year, Judy Benton and Judy Smith were co-captains of the cheerleaders. Judy Benton was elected "Miss Hi Miss". Poni Johnson was awarded the D. A. R. "Good Citizenship Award", and Judy Benton was chosen Miss Merry Christmas queen. She represented Odell in the Concord and Kannapolis parades. Poni Johnson and Benny Allen were elected Miss and Mr. Senior.

CLASS PROPHECY

I can hardly realize that it is 1982! Time flies almost as fast as our newest jets here at the Charlotte Municipal Airport. My boss, BENNY ALLEN, and I were talking the other day about several of our former classmates. We see a few of our classmates quite often, in fact, KERMIT TUCKER is flying a DC-8 between Charlotte and Chicago. Kermit mentioned that REBECCA MESIMER and RUTH COSTNER are hostesses on his plane frequently. WAYNE FREEZE who is head mechanic for Eastern Airlines works with MIKE PEELE in sketching future air craft designs.

While we were talking LARRY TAYLOR walked into our reservation office. He was preparing to return to U. N. C. where he is a French professor. Larry remarked that he had just seen JIMMY BAKER who is now President of Colonial Stores and that Jimmy was finally sharing grocery bills with his favorite cashier, CARLA SPRADLEY. He also mentioned that LINDA TAYLOR and ANN EMERSON are enjoying their positions as head bookkeepers for the Colonial Stores.

LINDA FRYE is noted for modeling the latest creations by MARY JOHNSON in the Mademoiselle Magazine.

That famous announcer, BOBBY BOGER is often heard over WAYS. Only the other day I heard him advertising BETTY LYERLY's product "Height Pills". After this commercial I was surprised to hear the nations number one hit sung by GARY KEE. It was "George Washington's Bridge".

Professor Taylor remarked that he had visited JERRY MESIMER, now a well-known beef tycoon, who owns the famous Broken Wheel Ranch along the banks of the Buffalo Creek. During his visit they were discussing FRED "DWIGHT" BARBEE's important decision. Being President of the United States he was considering whether or not to send Commander DWAYNE NELSON HENSLEY into the outer fringes of space.

Professor Taylor said that he had been reading about ROY CROMER who is a speculator on Wall Street. Mr. Cromer has made a considerable amount from L. T. BEAM's famous stock, Lima Bean Beam's, Inc.

We were anxious to tell Professor Taylor about the other classmates whom we had heard from. I told him about the post card from CYNTHIA PENNINGER and BARBARA BAUCOM which was postmarked Geneva, Switzerland. They were taking a world tour during their vacation from teaching at their Alma Mater. The card mentioned that they had seen HARRY BARBEE, now a famous basketball player, and his coach, MIKE STEGALL, at the summer Olympics in Rome.

BONNIE POPLIN and LUNDY GOODMAN are executive secretaries at the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company of Charlotte.

BRENDA FREEZE recently opened an Arthur Murray Dance Studio in Concord. Her prized pupil is one of ANNIE LEAZER's five children. Annie won the "Homemaker of the Year" award in 1980.

WINIFRED COBB is a famous playwright. Winifred's success comes from her joking ways and comments for every occasion, such as the way in which she kept us laughing during our high school days.

DONNIE GOULDMAN is owner of a popular summer camp for children. This is also a nice setting in which to raise her six children.

I heard that BARNARD COOK is selling his choice beef products to WAYNE CAMPBELL's Super-Soup Kitchen. The Super-Soup Kitchen is the favorite eating of Odell students after ball games.

SHIRLEY EUDY and LOIS FORTNER, well-known hair stylists, are owners of the La Salle DeBeau in Kannapolis.

BARRY POLK and his Music Makers have recently made a big hit at the Peppermint Lounge in New York. They have developed a new dance - it's more fun than the twist!

CAROL NANCE is a driving license examiner for North Carolina school bus drivers.

GERENE JORDAN's Mystery Hour is a big hit on N. B. C. every Monday night. She developed an enthusiasm for mysteries from watching "Thriller" during her high school days. Following Gerene's program GUY NEAL CROWE co-stars with Dr. Kildare in an exciting new medical story.

JUDY SMITH is happily married and traveling around the world with her husband who has made a career of the navy. Judy says she really enjoys this type of life.

JACKIE LEDWELL and JEWEL LAMBERT are successful Marriage Counselors in Concord. They received most of their training from psychology in high school.

HILDA SMITH is now a secretary for JUDY BENTON, a famous Washington lawyer. Judy has solved many important cases for the government.

The students are really proud of their winning girls' ball team which is coached by LINDA HILL. Linda enjoyed basketball so much in high school that she decided to make her career as a coach.

It was nice talking about our old classmates, but the reservation office was becoming crowded with passengers; therefore, Professor Taylor purchased his ticket and I returned to my work once more.

CLASS POEM

At long last we have reached our graduation day
But now that we're here it doesn't seem so gay.
All through the years we could hardly wait
For our principal to let down the proverbial gate.

We all had dreams of things by the score
That would be ours when we walked through these doors.
Graduation is here with its formalities and cheer
But for us who are graduating also come tears.

All the good times as a member of dear ole Odell High
Are all drifting away like clouds in the sky.
A whole new world of excitement and cheers
Is in store for each of us in the following years.

New jobs, new friends, and many new places
Each day our lives will be filled with many new faces.
But all should not be sadness as we walk down this aisle
For the good Lord has blessed us-now we should smile.

He gave us the best in every way
Of teachers, friends, and learning each day.
So let us give thanks for all we've gained in this short while
And hold our heads high, to the world let us smile.

With our rings on our fingers, our diploma in our hands
We will all walk along life's wonderful strands.
The whole world lies before us-to have and to hold
As we use our gained knowledge which is more valuable than gold.

Poet
Carla Spradley
